TREASURE HUNT

The Legend of General Yamashita's treasure were believed to be tons of gold and jewels hidden during World War II around coastal and mountainous areas of Maragundon and Ternate, Cavite. Many years after. President Fredinand Marcos acquired vast lands in Ternate which they saw was one of the said sites of Yamashita's treasure, Marcos developed this land as his family's private gateway. Did you know that the once Marco's private getaway is now Caylabne Bay Resort.
